

First home of Johann Briem - with the first school (cross below) built of logs. Icelandic River in foreground , School was held in this building as early as 1877.

View along the Icelandic River. The school and Jonn Jonasson's house on the right.

new school

View of the old Riverton Schools with the new fifteen room Elementary School in the background, July 1967. The end of an era.

