

in fact, all attended school and grew up with lasting memories of the area. These years were part of the "Depression" and all of us soon found work of some kind to augment the family income. Most left for greener pastures and soon were to be found in many districts and provinces of Western Canada. Marriage within the community followed in some instances and has helped to keep our relations with the community quite alive over the years.

Dick - was born in Scotland in 1902. Attended Issac Brock school in West Winnipeg. He helped his Dad and Uncle in the shop in Treherne, married Ida Russel, eventually settling in Killarney. He is now retired and lays claim to being one of Killarney's oldest citizens.

Margaret - was never at McConnell, unless to visit. Born in Scotlant in 1901 attended school in Winnipeg, married a butcher in Treherne, finally settling in Rapid City where he ran a shop for many years.

David - born 1903, farmed with his Dad at Treherne for 4 years, following the family to McConnell. Found work where ever he could for a few years, married Edna Pangman and soon struck out for Alberta where he became the proud father of two fine boys. He will be remembered by many people of the McConnell and Hamiota districts.

Robert - born in Scotland in 1905. Operated a B.A. filling station in McConnell for many years, delivered oil to the farmers and picked up their cream to take to Shoal Lake creamery twice weekly. Bob married a lady from the district, many will remember Annie Paterson.

Wilhelmina (Winnie) - born in Scotland in 1907, resided for a short time in McConnell, eventually finding work in Edmonton where she married Bill Bellerose.

Lottie - born 1909. Took most of her schooling in McConnell. She took second to Wesley Pollock in a school public speaking contest. Lottie succumbed to an attack of acute appendicitis in 1925 in the Hamiota hospital.

Jack - born 1911, the last of this family to be born in Scotland. Took most of his schooling in McConnell. Spent two years at the Manitoba Agricultural College, from there graduated as a Veterinarian from the Ontario Veterinary College in 1938. Jack married Annie Olive Pollock of the district. She contributed greatly to his success as a