Dotten and family; Frank Loughland and "somebody"; Sam Brockie; our genial blacksmith, Will Scarlett; A.F. Haddad and family; Wm. Cheeseman (the talking auctioneer) and quite a few others that were travelling too fast to be recognized.

Taken from Bluff Creek news: Well now, what do you know about this. We have recently been notified that we have been appointed one of the judges of costumes at the W.A. Masquerade Ball at Amaranth on the 29th. This is a new job for us but costumes are so scant at present that it shouldn't take much time. We will raise to the occasion.

November 2/1920

Amaranth: One of the liviest evenings ever held was enjoyed by over 150 people last Friday under the auspices of the W.A., the spirit of Halloween was very freely indulged in. The showing of costumes was one to make our cities sit up and take notice. The winners were as follows: Gent's first Mr. Sam Brockie, "Uncle Sam", second, (no name) "Groom", ladies first, (no name) second, Miss V. Daigle, "Romeo"; Comic, first, Mr. R. Rusk, "Tramp", second, Miss E. Robinson, "Witch". The second gent's prize going to a lady shows the splendid make up of the winner as she was quite considered to be a man. Special mention must be made of the costumes of Miss L. Dotten as "Juliet", Miss G. Henders as "Rising Sun", Miss E. Napier as "Italian Dancer", Miss D. Napier as "Halloween", and in fact every one on the floor was a credit to the wearer.

Amaranth: The Women's Auxiliary desire to extend their heartfelt thank to all those who helped make their concert on Jan. 14th such a splendid success. Amaranth must be congratulated upon the talent she possesses. Special mention must be made of Mr. Gibson in his series of Chalk Sketches which were very clever. Jimmy's black mustache and Bob's big smile were almost perfect. A new singer was unearthed in the person of Mrs. Robinson, wife of our genial lumber yard manager. Mr. Hugh Palin was at his best in his recitation "The Shooting of Dan McGrew", while the short sketches by the young people were put on very well and brought forth many a laugh. It was a splendid evening's entertainment and throughly enjoyed by all

February 15/1921

Amaranth Amateur Players made a grand success last Friday when they presented their play entitled "Nothing But The Truth" at Big Point Hall. For good selection the first point towards success was won; for the play was not only comical, but very true to life in general. Telling the truth is always very desirable, but sometimes it is not the wisest thing to do, as it proved last Friday night. Not that a falsehood is to be encouraged, but everyone has the grand privilege of "keeping your mouth shut" when occasion demands it. The second point of success lay in the outstanding feature of good training by a good respected leader --Rev. Young; and finally the splendid success of the evening was completed by the good acting done by one and all of the players, with special mention, maybe, of the part of the Bishop, acted by Mr. Palin. A crowded hall, with hearty applause proved the appreciation of the audience.

Amaranth: A most enjoyable time was spent by many Friday evening of last week in Cheeseman's new Hall, when a splendid concert was held under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church.
