FRED WALDON

Frederick George Waldon is the younger son of William Waldon and Hannah Mary Tebby. He was born in Oak River August 5, 1910 and received his education in the Oak River schools.

Fred married Marjorie Luella Venables December 6, 1939 at Hamiota. Rev. Barnett officiated. After their marriage they took over the cafe business in Oak River from Wong and sold it to Lorne McCallum November 1941.

Fred then took employment with the R.M. of Blanshard as road patrol operator and is still a familiar figure on the big yellow machine. They bought their home from W. McLaughlin and moved it to its present site early in 1942. It was originally the Upland school.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldon have four children — Frederick Charles (Ricki) employed with Wilton Motors, Brandon; Carol Marjorie, a student at Brandon University; William G. Venables (Veni), attending Rivers Collegiate and part-time worked at Glinz's Store and Lori Marea, a student at the Oak River Junior High. Lori has inherited her brother's paper route. Previous to attending University Carol worked with the Manitoba Telephone System at Hamiota and taught school for two years at Hazelridge, Manitoba.

Fred is a past Master of the Cardale Masonic Lodge, Marjorie is active in the Royal Valley Chapter No. 40, Order of the Eastern Star, Rapid City, the Women's Institute and the 4-H Club (12 years). She was born in Hamiota, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Venables. She received her education in Hamiota.

EDWIN WATSON

Mr. Edwin Watson was born in Strathclair and received his schooling there. He spent a few years in the Royal Canadian Navy and upon his discharge came to reside on the S. J. Blackburn farm on Sec. 22-15-22.

In July 1957 he married Darlene Brown of Crawford Park. They have four children, Jackie, Cheryl, Dianne, and Tommy. Mr. and Mrs. Watson are active community workers. Edwin is a member of the Legion Curling Club and Masonic Lodge.

Mr. S. Blackburn still resides with the Watson family.

R. P. WATT

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Watt came from Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., to McConnell in 1919 and lived on the north half of Sec. 7-15-22 owned by Mr. Joe McLean at that time, and now owned by Mr. Jack Wright. In 1938 they sold out and went on a trip to Scotland.
