

William Bell. It was the original Mr. Harry Whithrow farm. The house is built of logs and is still used.

Two girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Watt. Marion in 1928 and Roberta in 1930. Mr. and Mrs. Watt retired from the farm in 1963 and moved to Hamiota.

MRS. DONALD WEBB

Mrs. Webb, the former Bernice Greenaway, is the elder daughter of the late Alfred Greenaway and Mildred Desmond. She was raised and educated in the Oak River area.

After graduating from the Brandon General Hospital in May 1933, Bernice worked as a private duty nurse there until May 1937. St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minnesota, wrote the Brandon superintendent of nurses requesting applications from registered nurses. Bernice was accepted and was the first of many Brandon General graduates to go "south of the border".

In June 1939 she married and travelled with her husband until they settled in Glenwood Springs, Colorado. During World War II Bernice worked as surgical and general duty nurse in Porter Hospital. She was widowed in January 1945.

Donald Webb, whom Bernice married in November 1946, is an accountant for New Jersey Zinc Company, Gilman, Colorado. Bernice worked as a general duty nurse in the company hospital there until they adopted twins in September, 1949. Their son passed away in 1955 and their daughter, Donna, is a junior in college, majoring in Elementary Education.

Bernice began her present career as secretary for the public health nurse, with offices in Vail, Colorado in August 1964.
