W.I. CENTENNIAL BALL 1967

The Oak River Women's Institute held a very successful Centennial Costume Ball in the Auditorium of the Oak River Collegiate on May 6th, 1967. The evening was devoted entirely to "Old Time Dancing". Lunch was passed to the crowd, as was the custom in "The Old Days". Maurice Genung's Orchestra provided excellent music for dancing.

Day of Flag Raising.

MANITOBA CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS STAGED

Birthday celebrations were staged at Oak River, December 31st, 1969 to kick off the 1970 round of celebrations commemorating Manitoba's 100th birthday of Confederation. A large crowd gathered at the flag staff at the Junior High School for flag raising ceremonies.

Frank McPhaden, Centennial chairman, welcomed the guests and prepared the Centennial flag for ascent. Rev. Victor Bowins
