

Patrol Second Weldon Sage, 13 — Cardale, Manitoba. For his meritorious and prompt action in extinguishing the flames which had ignited the clothing of his younger brother, Douglas, aged 10, when the latter used gasoline in lighting a fire. After giving succour to his brother, Weldon returned to the scene to put out the flames which threatened a playhouse. Weldon is seen here with the Governor-General Roland Michener at Ottawa.

Taken in 1929, on Section 18-14-21 at Ralph Espey's. Left to right: Roy on front of engine, Ralph in cab, standing, hired helper Duncan Derby. Gas pull Rumberley.

The Three Bear Hunters. Bear was shot on Dick Dennison's farm, now owned by Boyd Waddell, in the 1940's. Left to right: Bob Farrend, "Gentle Ben", Albert Rawlinson and Peter McTavish, taken in front of Elevator Annex in Cardale.