
TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....xiii

PART I LAYING THE GROUNDWORK 1892 - 1914

1. Small Town, Big Dreams 1893-1903.....3
2. Boom Times 1904-191413
3. Building the City Beautiful24

PART II HOLDING ON 1914 - 1945

4. Keeping Them Off the Streets 1908-1919.....34
5. The Strike and the Twenties That Never Roared
1919-1929.....42
6. Making the Best of a Bad Situation 1930-1945.....55

PART III THE LONG SUMMER 1946 - 1960

7. Charles Barbour Comes to Town64
8. Community Clubs and How They Grew77
9. Parks at the Dawn of the Metro Era 1945-196091
10. The Struggle to Modernize 1945-1960104

PART IV THE SUBURBAN EXPERIENCE 1914 - 1977

11. Parks and Recreation Services in the Suburban
Municipalities 1914-1977114

PART V COPING WITH COMPLEXITY 1960 - 1993

12. The Leap Forward Under Metro 1960-1971.....144
13. Unicity and the Years of Uncertainty 1971-1979162
14. Hard Choices: The Eighties and Nineties173
15. One Hundred Years of Parks and Recreation
in Winnipeg188

APPENDIX

1993 in Review: 101 Reasons to Celebrate
One Hundred Years of Service195

ENDNOTES199

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY.....209

INDEX.....213