

In March 1972, a group calling itself "Meush's Mobsters" is seen here after a "job" at the Portage Credit Union. The caption under this picture in the Daily Graphic said the "fierce group of hoodlums" were part of room competition during Spirit Week.

Spirit Activities

Do you remember some of these spirit activities?

Tricycle races in the hallways, and "Wik-do" Day?

The dating game, Nerd Day, food eating relay, Black Day, and Reach for the Top?

The bus push and a number of people, including student council president Tara Graham, kissing the pet pig?

Student council vs. staff in flicker ball? Cracker and bubble gum contest, water balloon toss, egg toss, limbo relay, and surfboard races?

The 1968 theme days such as Rock Day, Prep Day, Toga Day, Hawaiian Day? What about the fitness casino, Summer Olympics, and the lip sync competition, won by Kelly Anderson, Pierre Sareault, and Donny Atkinson?

The 1984-85 noon hour activities in December — ice-sculpting, toboggan races, snow baseball, and a snowman building competition? How about Fruit Day and Think Pink Day?

What about activity afternoon on the last day before Christmas, including ping pong, badminton, volleyball, chess, trivial pursuit, movies and Reach for the Top?

Remember when Bessy the cow wouldn't "do her thing"?

Ryan Matthews in math class during Hat and Tie Day during Spirit Days in 1989.