Notes on Session Activities Since Union

To prepare for the Union of the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations a joint committee was appointed — consisting of five members from each congregation. St. Andrew's had the following members on this committee: Mrs. Charles Robertson, W. Hanley, George McDonald, A. R. Welch, and C. Y. MacKenzie.

St. Paul's was represented by C. C. Musgrove, Mrs. Hugh Johnstone, James Harrison, Ben Hill, and Norman White. C. C. Musgrove was committee chairman and C. Y. MacKenzie, secretary.

Recommendations of this committee were:

- (1) that all officers of the two congregations resign;
- (2) elections be held to fill the positions of the TEN Elders, and TWELVE Stewards.
- (3) salary of the new minister to be $2500, giving him one month's holidays;
- (4) order of service to be that used in St. Andrew's;
- (5) Presbyterian Book of Praise be used;
- (6) a Board of Trustees, three in number, were to hold the property on behalf of the congregation, their term of office to be determined by the congregation.

On the Session of the new congregation were the following: G. A. Culbert, C. N. Dow, C. Y. MacKenzie, C. C. Musgrove, J. J. Musgrove, George McDonald, John Oke, J. H. Spencer, Marshall Little.

Rev. R. E. McCulloch was the first minister after Union. Mrs.
