URBAN AND SUBURBAN.

"You may kiss me, but don't let pa hear,
He's a frightful bad temper you know
In the hall he is waiting, my dear,
Let me kiss you again—hold me so."

At the foot of the front steps he lies,
Where he fell with a dull thud just now;
There's a print on his coat-tails the size
Of a boot the old man sealed his vow.

—Ha!

—What?

—Jack Frost.

—See 'em this morning?

—Scratch in your potatoes.

—The Arlingtons to-night for the last time.

—The police are going to get out on the track of dog thieves.

—Several of the "prairie chickens" left the city last evening.

Two large deer were seen within two miles of the city yesterday.

—Tenders closed for the grading and fencing of the new turf club to-day.

Positively last appearance to-night of Arlington Minstrels. Another entire change of programme.

—Glenora town lots will be placed on the market this evening by T. P. Murray.

—The excavation work of Governor Cauchon's new block is progessing very slowly.

—The Presbytery of Manitoba meet this evening in the basement of Knox Church.

—The Provincial Government are getting out a mammoth map of the Province.

—It is said that the Katie Putnam troupe well play here during the exhibition week.

—The Minstrel Band paraded the streets to-day in the band wagon, discoursing sweet music.

—Messrs. Jarvis and Whitcher compose the visiting directors to the hospital for the last half of this month.

—Wild ducks are getting more numerous on the market and were selling this morning at 20c a piece.

—The Kildonan ferry has ceased running, and the people are petitioning to have it kept going until ice forms.

—The steamer Cheyenne arrived this morning with a large cargo of grain. She will again depart this evening.

—Mr. H.A. Jukes and A.J. Watkinson are among the entries in the Fine Arts department of the coming exhibition.

—A horrible stench arises from an opening in a sewer at the corner of Dr. Henderson's new block. Whew!

Positively last appearance to-night of Arlington Minstrels. Another entire change of programme.

—Meeting of Y. M. C. A. to-night in Knox Church. All are invited to attend, and a good programme has been prepared.

—Classes of the Manitoba college resumed their studies this morning in the late residence of the Rev. James Robertson.

—There was only one case at the city Police Court this morning, that being Henry Adams for drunkenness. He was fined $2 and costs.

—The case of breach of livery by-law did not come up this morning as the defendent did not put in an appearance. It is said that he has left the city.

—The grain elevators which the School Board is erecting in the North and West Wards are expected to be ready for occupation by the 1st October.

—A bad smell arises from the stable in the new firehall. It is time the authorities looked into this matter. or perhaps it is a case for the health inspector.

—Corp. Macklin who left here for the Ottawa Rifle match is meeting with great success. He made 343 and the highest was 380. In the local competithe highest was 313.

—At the Provincial Police Court this morning, Cronn, of the Queen's, was up for keeping back the wages of his servant girl—Eliza Johnson. Judgment was given in favor of the plaintiff.

Positively last appearance to-night of Arlington Minstrels. Another entire change of programme.

—Another new steamer is in course of erection by R. and P. George. It is 90 feet long and 17½ feet beam. It is designed for towing purposes. Mr. D. B. Bucanan, formerly of St. John, N.B. is the builder.

—Several of our citizens leave for Morris this afternoon to assist at the Conservative picnic which takes place to-morrow. We believe some of our local men are going to take a prominent part and discuss leading "questions of the day."

—Complaints are being frequently made about the drunken Indians who infest the vicinity of the slaughter houses. The police are at a loss what to do with them as the jail is full already. Some remedy should be devised at once,

Mr. Wm. Wellband was passing the pound yesterday when his attention was arrested by the attenuated form of a spaniel dog. The ownerless dog looked pleadingly at him, and not in vain, for Mr. W. immediately paid for his liberty and took him home. A good heart asserts itself on all occasions.

—An immense prairie fire is raging to-day to the West of the hospital.

—Grace Lemarche received a summons this morning for using profane and abusive language to Mrs. Z. Laporte. The case will come up to-morrow.

Mr. J. H. Murray, brother of T. P. Murray, has arrived here from Minnesota and is so favorably impressed with Winnipeg that he intends going back to sell out and take up his residence in this city.

—Mr. Hall, of Johnson & Hall presented us to-day with a couple of finely executed photographs of Sir A. T. Galt which were taken by him. Mr. Hall says that the climate of this country is especially adapted for taking fine photos.

STEALING DOGS.

There are some parties in this city who are destined to get into trouble if they do not mend ther ways very quickly. We refer to dog theives. Dog stealing has become a very common practice latterly and we are informed that it is the intention of the authorities, to deal severely with the theives if discovered. Chief Murray, and the proprietor of the "Golden" had dogs stolen but recovered them. Mr. Wm. Wellband advertises an English retriever pup "strayed or stolen" in another column and should it turn out that the pup has been stolen we believe he will give the culprit the full benefit of the law.

THE ARLINGTONS.

The Arlington troupe played to another good house last night. The programme though was not as good as that of previous evenings yet furnished a performance that afforded the utmost satisfaction, and elicited very frequent applause. Mr. Banks Winters sang several songs in his usual excellent style but some of the effect was lost by the cornet in the accompaniment being too loud. Billy Arlington eclipsed his former efforts and proved himself a thorough minstrel. He is immense. Mr. Gooderham, of this city by request gave a clog dance and was forced to respond to an encore. Alton proved himself a good female mimic and brought down the house by his feats in that line. To-night there will be an entire change of programme and as this will be tne company's last appearance it is thought they will be greeted with a bumper house—which they well deserve.

DR. THOMAS.

His Views on Heresy

NOTABLE UTTERANCES CITED.

BISHOP FOSTER'S HERETICAL VIEWS ON THE RESURRECTION.

AN ORTHODOX METHODIST.

He Does Not Mean to Drift Into Unitarianism.

(Special to the SUN.)

Chicago, Sept. 14—The Rev. Dr. Thomas has been interviewed by a Tribune reporter, and in answer to the question: "What would be the effect of your expulsion on the church, said:

"If they go on and expel me the general impression, I think, must be that the church will have taken a step in the direction of narrowness instead of breadth, and this I should very deeply regret. It is a fact that in nearly all the other Protestant churches, both in this country and Europe, there is a growth in the direction of larger liberty, They do not in Europe nor in New England pretend to bind men down to the old, narrow conceptions of the Bible; nor do I think that, either there or here, men are generally held to the pencil interpretation of the atonement. Indeed, the entire Presbyterian church, that once clung so tenaciously to that doctrine, is moving in the direction of milder views. On the subject of future punishment there has been for years a large liberty in Germany. Indeed, the belief may be said to be almost universal there that the final doom of the soul is not settled at the moment of death, and almost the whole church of England is coming into the same broader faith. And so, too, all the more scholarly men in most of the churches in this country. There is coming forward now an immense amount of learning and careful thought upon that subject, the result of which is to give men a more hopeful vision of the future. The Episcopal church in this country does not hold its ministers to any definite line of thinking on this subject, nor does the Reformed Episcopal church. The Rev. Mr. Wilson, of this city, of the Reformed church, has preached, and, I believe, lately published a book on the annihilation of the wicked, and has affirmed that belief. But the Reformed Episcopal church does not think of giving him any trouble because of such teaching. And the Congregational church tolerates the thought of such men as Beecher and Dr. Whinton. I should be sorry to see the Methodist church at this time going out of its articles of religion and of the great creeds of Christianity and making endless punishment a dogma to which all her ministers, to be faithful, must subscribe. As it is, we can lawfully leave that a somewhat open question. With the thought and learning that are coming forward there will be a great change in the public mind in the next ten years. The Methodist church is, however liberal in one thing. It permits Bishop Foster to go on undisturbed, although he has denied the resurrection of the body, which is a doctrine both of the articles of religion and of the apostles and Nicene creeds. And I had hoped that they would let me alone in the little thinking that I had tried to do, when I had not violated either of those great standards."

"Do you think expulsion would drive you further into liberal views, and into the Unitarian or Universalist church?"

"Not at all. I am not a Universalist nor a Unitarian, but an orthodox Methodist, and I do not mean to join any denomination unless I sincerely agree with it in doctrine."

THE QUEEN'S REAL ESTATE SALE ROOM,
Winnipeg. Sept. 7th, 1881.

Important Notice to Property Owners, Real Estate Agents and Others.

GENTLEMEN,—

I have opened a Real Estate Auction Sale Room in the Queen's Hotel, the most centrally located and popular resort of the best class of real estate buyers in the city of Winnipeg, and I purpose holding from this date a regular sale of miscellaneous properties on a stated evening of each week, and solicit from you any real estate you may desire to dispose of by public competition, whether City, Town or Farm Property. The location of this Sale Room and the esteem in which it is held by sellers of properties, is evidenced by the desire of such to have their sales held in this room in preference to any other public room in the city; and the fact that it is the resort of the larger portion of strangers who visit Winnipeg for the purpose of investing money in our great Prairie Province, and I confidently anticipate that these sales will become, in a short time, one of the best mediums in Manitoba for disposal of all kinds of real estate. A liberal method of advertising will be adopted, and no expense will be spared by me to make my weekly sales known to all who may be seeking chances for investment. Properties to be offered at these sales should be placed with me a week prior to evening of sale to enable the same to be properly classified and advertised.

Special Terms for Mortgage and Chancery Sales.

The terms upon which properties will be taken for these weekly sales will be exceedingly liberal, and may be ascertained by applying to yours very obediently,

JOS. WOLF.

N. B.—Special attention paid to sales upon the ground, and dates for other sales can be secured for any night except that chosen for these regular miscellaneous property auction sales. sept13tf
