THE LORNE BANQUET.

An C. J. Brydges on the Gove deserval's Trip.

In proposing the health of the Governor-General at the banquet by the Manitoba Club, the chairman, Mr. C. J. Brydges spoke as follows:

ing, and I hope you will drink it, as I am sure will, in flowing bumpers. When His Excellency the Governor-General came to Winnipeg rather more than two months ago, there was a very collency the Governor-General. (Enstrong desire among the members of the Manitoba Club to have an opportunity thusiastic applause.) of offering him such hospitality as their club was able to afford, but circumstunces at that time prevented us from Tp 8, r 5 e, n et Sec 16, and nt of s et Sec 16; 240 doing what we so much desired to do. (Cheers.) I need not tell the gentle-men round this table, and I am sure I need not tell His Excellency, that Winnipeg is yet a very young city, but though this is the case we number amongst the members of our Tp 13, r 5 w, n of s and s of n of Sec 31; 240 club gentlemen from various parts of Canada and of the old country, and who have brought with them the associations of the older countries, and amongst them the desire for what is known as club life (applause), but we have not had moved. until to-night a building in which it was possible to entertain our distinguished guest. This club sprang from very small beginnings. They occupied promises which were rented at I shall not say how moderate a cost, but commensurate with the position they then occupied as a club. The institution gained ground steadily, and its members have at length obtained the position of being > dine with them in a club house which is their own (loud cheers), and which they hope will be affiliated, as is right should be the case, with other clubs in the Dominion, and not in the Dominion alone, but in Great Britain. (Loud cheers.) When His Excelleny was here before, the premises we occupied, although of of course nothing like so large as the building in which we are now sitting, was still somewhat better than what we had at the moment of his arrival. We have heard a good deal of late about tenants who could not pay their rents, or who were unwilling to pay them, and who were removed from the premises they occupied. We doctor's. occupied a different position. We were anxious to pay double the amount of our rent-nay, almost any sum-if we might only be allowed to stay where we

to-night able to ask His Excellency to aughter)—to turn us out into the street and compel us to occupy the best log Thes. Donnelly alone. The order was cabin we could find upon the wayside, which was the building in which we were compelled to lodge ourselves for a couple of months. (Renewed laughter.) But it was not one into which we could ask His Excellency to come. Being, however, desirous to express to him our respect for his exalted position, a few of us, on behalf of the club, waited on him 2 good 20 acre wood lots 17 miles from city, oast at Silver Heights, and having discover-Lot 734, corner Kennedy and Graham st., H. B. ed that it was the anniversary of his natal day we begged to offer him our congratulations and to hope that he might have before him many years of happiness and prosperity (loud cheering), and we added that we hoped it would be in consonance with his engagements to accept the hospitality of the club in which we are now situated. His Excellency was good enough to say that it would afford him great pleasure to comply with our request, and though from circumstances he was compelled to take a different route from that by which he had intended to return, and though he was compelled to travel 500 were, but I suppose the inevitable exi-duced him to distrain upon us-(loud miles extra he was good enough to incur Extra Good Value at George the discomfort and meet us here to night (great cheering) as he has done. I thought it right, gentlemen, that we should make this brief explanation of the circumstances under which we asked him to meet us to-night, but I must be permitted to add that he has done what very few around this table have donehe has penetrated into the innermost recesses of our Canadian Northwest. (Applause.) It has not been, as I am sure you all know, and as I know from personal experience—it has not been a pleasure trip. It is a journey which undoubtedly does much to improve one's knowledge of geography, and to com-plete the education which it is desirable for all who wish to be statesmen to obtain, but it is a journey which implies a complete severance from all those comforts to which one like our guest has

500 PR, MEN'S FINE FRENCH CALF been accustomed, and entails a great 500 PR. MEN'S FINE FRENCH CALF deal of hardship, but I am sure His Excellency has performed this journey from a high sense of duty (cheers). We all know that His Excellency—and H. R. H. the Princess Louise, when she was with him did the same—has travelled from one end of Canada to the other. and has had the opportunity of seeing it in every portion of the Dominion. He has now added to the knowledge he thus obtained, a knowledge possessed by very few by travelling throughout the length and breath of this great Northwest, of travelling to the Saskatchewan, of proceeding across the plains to the Rocky Mountains, of pitching his tent within sight of the snow-capped peaks of that mighty range, and of seeing the which he has the proud privilege to rule. (Tramendous cheering.) I think, therefore, that His Excellency is entitled on every ground to our warmest respect, and esteem, (great cheering) and I am quite sure that in future years it will be one of hishappiest recollections, that, in his reign over this Dominion, as representing Her Majesty he has been enabled to see for himself every portion of her Dominion, and will be able to say to her, when he meets her on the other side of the 'Atlantic, 'that this is a country teeming with everything to make men happy, and that there are facilities to place vast numbers of those who are struggling with difficulties and privations in the Old Country, but who, if they come out here, will be able to establish homes which will be their own in fee simple, and where they will have to pay rent to no man whatever. Gentlemen, I am sure Gentlemen: I am now about to ask that you, like myself, are desirous of you to drink the toust of the evenhearing some of those impressions which he has formed of the possible future of this country. I therefore ask you to join me with every demonstration of respect in drinking the health of His Ex-
