

Sun. THREE CENTS. OCTOBER 13, 1881.

Sun Skits.

There is an opening in the sewer on William street, which causes a horrible stench in that vicinity, where residents of the locality are howling for the Health Inspector to put in an appearance.

John Egan, who chewed a piece out of McPherson's ear, was this morning before the Police Magistrate and bound over to keep the peace—not the piece of the organ referred to, but the peace of Her Majesty the Queen.

Messrs. J. & P. Lyons, the energetic contractors yesterday finished the brick work of Gerris's new block on Princess Street. They are to be congratulated not only on the excellence of their workmanship, but upon the energy with which it was put through.

The Provincial Teachers' Association will hold its annual meeting on Friday and Saturday, the 14th and 15th inst. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend its meetings. As the Central School is not available, the Association will meet in the Court House.

Express parcels have arrived for—Halle, J. Costigan, W. G. Scott, A. B. Coil, Orris, Harstone, Dickson, Maratta, Starrett, G.S.O. Co., Robson & Co. G. Andrew, Bishop & Shelton, J. A. M. Carl, J. H. Smith, E. C. Kenway, A. Cunningham, Geo. Gieserson and W. J. Matthews.

The circulation of THE SUN is booming and merchants are beginning to have appreciable proof that it is the most profitable medium through which to address their constituencies of purchasers. From one news dealer this morning we received an order for an increase of one hundred copies in the number supplied to him.

W. J. GULER, caretaker of the Louise Bridge, had a granger arrested for allowing his oxen to run over the bridge instead of walking. The man said that he could not stop them. The charge did indeed seem very frivolous, but he was fined $1 and costs, as the regulations are peremptory.

The cold weather has now fairly set in, and people will be prudent to purchase their winter clothing without delay, as in a few weeks the rush of orders will be so great that a frigid delay in getting them filled will try the tempers and the temperance of procrastinators. Readers of THE SUN will find that they can get the best satisfaction from advertisers whose announcements they find in our columns.

JOHN AMES, who was in an intoxicated state, entered a hack last night and made the hackman drive him from one hotel to another and then refused to pay him. The police magistrate ordered him to pay the bill this morning, at the same time fining him a dollar and costs for refusing to do so. The next time John undertakes to play roots on Jehu, he will do well to remember his interview with the P.M.

ABOUT eight o'clock last evening some unsanctified kleptomaniac stole an overcoat from the store of Messrs. Pilkey & Hockett. The coat was missed, and a clerk started out to interview the nearest man in sight, whom he asked if he had seen a man with a coat on his arm. The party, who was probably the thief, said no, but his actions were so suspicious that the clerk concluded that he was the guilty party and had dropped the coat. Returning a short distance he found the coat thrown into a yard, but, in the meantime, the thief had escaped.

WE REGRET to learn that Mr. William Smith, a well known drover, who was at one time associated with Mr. Johnson the butcher, died this morning at his place of residence on Mary Street.

THERE WERE only three cases at the Police Court this morning, including Emma Gillies, who was up on remand for stealing a pair of pants. Judgment was reserved until to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

Several sheep were badly injured by dogs in a yard back of J. H. Ashdown's store. The sheep belong to a man named Bill, who we understand will take action against the owners of the canines. We would advise him to take action with a shot gun.

What is the moon good for? asked Prof. Miller; what are its principal uses? And the smart boy looked up from the foot of the class and said: "To rest the gas companies."

JOSEPH WOLF, GENERAL AUCTIONEER, REAL ESTATE AGENT.

THE QUEEN'S REAL ESTATE SALE ROOM, 1001 office.

Important Notice to Property Owners. Real Estate Agents and Others.

GENTLEMEN.—I have opened a Real Estate Auction Sale Room in the Queen's Hotel, the most centrally located and popular resort of the best class of real estate buyers in the city of Winnipeg, and I purpose holding from this date a regular sale of miscellaneous properties on a stated evening of each week, and solicit from you any real estate you may desire to dispose of by public competition, whether City, Town or Farm Property. The location of this Sale Room and the reasons in which it is held by salient of properties, levelled by the desire of such to have their sales held in the most prominent and accessible place in the city, and the fact that it is the resort of the large portion of strangers who visit Winnipeg for the purpose of investing money in our great Prairie Province, and I confidently anticipate that these sales will become, in due time, one of the best mediums in Manitoba for disposing of all kinds of real estate. A liberal method of advertising will be adopted, and no expense will be spared by me to make my weekly sales known to all who may be seeking chances for investment. Properties to be offered at these sales should be placed with me a week prior to evening of sale to enable the same to be properly classified and advertised.

Special Terms for Mortgage and Chancery Sales. The terms upon which properties will be taken for these weekly sales will be exceedingly liberal, and may be ascertained by applying to yours very liberally.

JOS. WOLF. N. B.—Special attention paid to sales upon the ground, and dates for other sales can be secured for any night, except that chosen for the regular mortgage and chancery property auction sales, arranged.

ADVERTISING, if done judiciously, is a paying proposition. This is the conclusion arrived at by many business men. Try it, and be convinced. The best medium in which to make yourself known is THE SUN. Rates Moderate.
