THE VACANT SENATORSHIP.

There are now several vacancies in the Senate awaiting the pleasure of Sir John Macdonald, who seems to be a favored child of fortune...

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Hon. J. W. SIMON, will be a candidate in the ensuing contest in Brandon. Among the latest rumours is one that Hon. Alex. Campbell is to be raised to the Bench...

Mr. Ross, the member for Dundas, has sent his friends to Ottawa to open Sir John's optic to the peculiar qualifications of that gentleman to fill the shoes of the late Senator Brouse.

A DESPATCH from Ottawa says Mr. Girouard, M. P., for Jacques Cartier, will be appointed to the Bench...

The Toronto Globe, a few days ago, asked the Mail to name one new "manufacture started in Toronto since 'The N. P. came in force.'" the theory. The Globe may shut its eyes, but the people realize the fact that the country has prospered under Protection...

SUN BEAM.

THERE are only five Richmonds in the field in the county of Brandon, and the constituency is howling for more candidates.

The Philadelphia News man has travelled in his time. He says with much emotion: "Beware of the landlady who merely 'keeps boarders for company' or 'because the house is too large.'"

WINNIPEG wants a postal delivery system. When country villages like Ottawa, Kingston, Hamilton and London are provided with letter-carriers...

The Emerson International says:—"The Winnipeg Sun is to be enlarged to eight pages and otherwise improved."

The Pilot Mound Signal says it is in doubt if the editor of THE SUN would know a kangaroo from a crocodile if both were turned loose into his bed-room when his breeches were off...

SOME of the eastern journals have been very much exercised of late over the probable fate of the Dominion Senate. They will be pleased to know that the perplexing problem has been absolutely and unalterably solved...

A "CRANK" at Rochester, named Mylecraine, while labouring under the hallucination that he was Guiteau, the assassin of President Garfield, carefully put a very fine edge on his razor...

province of the prairies. We don't want to hear of any one getting under the delusion that he is the editor of the Free Press...

The Toronto Telegram has apparently been attending the theatre lately and taking stock in the bald-heads on the front seats. Where upon he moralizes sagely upon the probable causes of the appalling prevalence of bald-headedness...
